GCSE Sociology

Lesson 3 - Education

The Roles & Functions of Education (I)

Includes a detailed lesson plan!

Key Information

The key theories about the function of the education system are:

- Education is functional for citizens from the purpose of education to bring individuals cultural norms and values.
- Education also functions to socialize the purpose of education to bring individuals cultural norms and values, as individuals' personal values shape the educational system for their work ability and life.
- Learning by means of the society, facilitating responsibility and fostering social cohesion.
- Marxist theorists see the education system as a tool for the reproduction of capitalist working class society for their value on economic production and profit. Education reproduces social relations and reinforces class divisions and stratification.
- Functionalists see education as a meritocratic system which sorts and places individuals in their appropriate places of labor, the best and public maintaining together the social order.
